Nebraska Returns to Sun Classic Where Bowl String Started In '69

By DON BRYANT

Nebraska's potent Cornhuskers take to the bowl wars for the 12th consecutive year on December 27 in El Paso—where it all started way back in 1969.

This time the opponent will be a very fine Mississippi State team coached by Emory Bellard, pappy of the Wishbone, who skippered a fired up band of Bulldogs to a 9-2 record, including a stunner over Alabama.

Ironies abound in this matchup between the statistically powerful and highly ranked Cornhuskers and the Bulldogs, who rate as a top-notch Southern surprise for 1980 after a 3-8-0 campaign in 1979.

Like the first time Nebraska visited El Paso, the opponent was Georgia and the coach was Vince Dooley. In case you've forgotten Dooley is still at Georgia and his Bulldogs are the only unbeaten major college team, currently ranked No. 1 in the nation. Georgia will meet Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl with that ranking on the line.

Nebraska, which finished 9-2 like Mississippi State, had high hopes for a No. 1 finish, too, but the wily Wishboners from Oklahoma slapped a 21-17 finale on the season to knock the Huskers from Miami to El Paso.

So who does Oklahoma get? Why Florida State, of course—the only other team to defeat Nebraska (17-14) during the regular season in a bowl game that also has national title possibilities.

While Nebraska and Mississippi State won't be savoring No. 1 hopes along with their tacos, bowl game afficianados should be treated to a gridiron delight of the first order.

Cornhusker Coach Tom Osborne, rated among the nation's coaching elite with a 74-20-2 career record and renowned as an offensive mastermind, put together another barn-burner for 1980. It was Tom's eighth consecutive winner—nine victories or more—and bowl entry since he succeeded Bob Devaney in 1973.

Nebraska is the nation's rushing champion, averaging 378.3 yards per game, while finishing second to Brigham Young in total offense with a 506.9 average. Defensively, the Huskers were stingy, ranking third in rushing defense (86.4) and total defense (209.1).

Make no mistake, the Cornhuskers will have to fire all guns and keep their chin straps buckled.

The 1980 Bulldog team was a record-breaking edition, thanks to Bellard's latest brainchild—the Wingbone offense. Up front there's an offensive line, dubbed the Bulldozers, which paved the way for 3,135 rushing yards and 4,189 total yards. Both the rushing total and the 380.8 rushing average were records.

The Bulldogs will feature soph halfback Mike Haddix who registered

724 yards and a 5.4 average, and Frosh QB John Bond was the key man in turning the Bellard Bunch into a 9-2 powerhouse. He skipped for 720 yards and passed for 849. Against LSU he gained 314 yards in total offense. Watch wingback Mardye McDole, too. He ran for 438 yards and caught 19 passes for 289 yards.

Nebraska, likewise, will present a flock of individual stars to the Sun Bowl crowd and the CBS television millions in the 11:35 a.m., classic.

Led by quarterback Jeff Quinn, the Big 8's passing leader, with 1,337 yards, the Huskers field a trio of talented I-Backs.

All America Jarvis Redwine gained 1,119 yards and averaged 124.3 per game to rank No. 5 in the nation. Soph Roger Craig chipped in 769 yards, while senior Craig Johnson had 679 and All Big 8 fullback Andra Franklin plowed for 678. Craig, by the way, capped a sensational debut year with 15 touchdowns.

Co-captain and All American guard Randy Schleusener spear-heads the offensive line, which also includes center Dave Rimington, guard Joe Adams, and tackle Dan Hurley. Jeff Finn and Steve Davies are standout tight ends, while Anthony Steels and Tim McCrady sparkle at wingback. Todd Brown caught 28 passes at split end, superbly backed by John Noonan.

Defensively, the Huskers get great leadership and play from All American end Derrie Nelson and junior standout Jimmy Williams. All Big 8 David Clark, Henry Waechter and Big 8 Defensive Newcomer of the Year Toby Williams give the Cornhuskers three standout tackles.

Curt Hineline and Jeff Merrell handle the middle guard spot in solid fashion, while the linebacking is deep and good—seniors Kim Baker and Brent Williams and sophomores Steve McWhirter and Steve Damkroger.

The Husker secondary features All Big 8 safety Russell Gary, three-year starter Andy Means and veterans Sammy Sims and Ric Lindquist and Rodney Lewis, one of the most improved players in the secondary corps.

Kevin Seibel hits 48 of 50 PATs and five of seven field goals for 63 points and he'll probably see punting action, too, along with Scott Gemar, who averaged 37.1.

It was a kicker, by the way, who started it all some 12 years ago. Paul Rogers booted four field goals in the first quarter as Nebraska ripped Georgia, 45-6. Since then the Huskers have visited the Orange Bowl four times, the Cotton Bowl twice, the Sugar Bowl, the Liberty Bowl, the Fiesta Bowl and the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Now it's back to the Sun Bowl after rousing wins over Utah, Iowa, Penn State, Kansas, Oklahoma State, Colorado, Missouri, Kansas State and Iowa State and near-misses against Orange Bowl combatants Florida State and Oklahoma.

And there the stage is set for a college football feature—Mississippi State's Bulldogs and Nebraska's Cornhuskers.

Head Coach

TOM OSBORNE

Head Football Coach—Assistant Athletic Director
University of Nebraska

Tom Osborne is in his eighth season as the Husker head coach. During the winter of 1978, Osborne was named a Nebraska Assistant Athletic Director.

In 1980, Osborne has guide NU to a 9-2 overall mark and a No. 9 ranking by UPI, 6-1 in the Big 8 (good for second place) and a berth in the Sun Bowl against Mississippi State. For his efforts, he's the 1980 AP Big 8 Coach of the year.

In '79, Osborne guided the Huskers to a 10-2 overall record, a second place finish in the Big Eight, a berth in the Cotton Bowl Classic, and a final national ranking of seventh in the UPI poll and ninth by AP.

Once again last season, Osborne was named District VI Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and Kodak. He was a finalist for the Kodak National Coach of the Year.

Not only has Osborne won better than 78% of his games (74-20-2=.781) at Nebraska over the last eight years, but has also skippered the Huskers to eight Top 10 finishes, eight post-season bowl appearances, and four bowl victories.

In 1978, Osborne was named the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year (presented by the Atlanta Quarterback Club and Delta Airlines towards the advancement of higher and more notable aspects of college coaching.) He was the District VI Coach of the Year selected by the American Football Coaches Association, and named Big Eight Coach of the Year by both Associated Press and United Press International.

Here is a rundown of Osborne's career from 1973-78. In 1978 the Huskers were 9-3 overall and co-champions of the Big 8, played Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl in a tough re-match, and wound up ranked eighth in the country. In 1977, Nebraska was 9-3 overall, tied for second in the always tough Big 8, Liberty Bowl Champs and ranked 10th in the country by UPI. In 1976, Nebraska ended the year 9-3-1 and beat Texas Tech 27-24 in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl. UPI ranked the Huskers no. 7 in '76. The 1975 season saw the Cornhuskers finish the regular season with a 10-1 record before losing, 17-14, to No. 2 ranked Arizona State in the Fiesta Bowl, and winding up No. 9. Nebraska also tied Oklahoma for first place in the Big 8 during the '75 campaign. In 1974, the Huskers ended with a 9-3 mark, beat Florida in the Sugar Bowl and finished No. 8 in the U.S. Then in 1973, Osborne's first year, the Cornhuskers were 9-2-1, defeated Texas in the Cotton Bowl and ended the year ranked No. 7 nationally.

Nebraska's Sugar Bowl win in 1974 was the Huskers' sixth consecutive post-season victory in as many years, tying the national record also shared by Georgia Tech.

Osborne, who graduated from Hastings College before logging pro time with the Washington Redskins and San Francisco 49ers, joined Devaney as an assistant in 1962. In 1965 he received his Ph.D. in Educational Psychology, then elected football coaching as a career. He coached the Husker receivers and helped build the NU offense into one of the most potent in the nation during the 1970 and 1971 National Championship years.

While Osborne was a newcomer to the head coaching ranks in 1973, he was no stranger to Nebraska football. Osborne was a member of Bob Devaney's incomparable staff for 11 years—the last six as a key organizer of a steam-roller offense.

During his tenure on the Devaney staff, Osborne headed the passing game strategy and coached the receivers. When Devaney announced his retirement from coaching in favor of full-time athletic director duties following the 1971 season, he announced Osborne would be his successor and assistant head coach for his final season of 1972. Osborne served in that capacity and as director of recruiting in 1972, then took the reins in 1973 and became only the third Husker coach in history (W. C. Cole in 1907 and Bob Devaney in 1962) to win eight games in his first season. And he was the first coach in Nebraska history to take his team to a major bowl (Cotton) in his first year.

An outstanding high school athlete at Hastings High School in the mid 1950s' Osborne was named Nebraska prep Athlete of the Year. Passing up major college offers, Osborne became the star quarterback and basketball player for Hastings College where both his father and grandfather had matriculated. In 1959 he was named State College Athlete of the Year—the first athlete in Nebraska history to win both the high school and college honor.

Following graduation from Hastings with a Bachelor of Arts Degree, Osborne played two years with the Washington Redskins and one year with the San Francisco 49ers as a flankerback before returning to Nebraska.

In 1962 he contacted Bob Devaney and secured a position as a graduate assistant on the Husker staff. He continued in that capacity until he obtained his Master's Degree in 1963. Continuing his dual role in education and football coaching, Osborne gained his Doctor's Degree in 1965 and, holding the Academic rank of Instructor of Educational Psychology in Teacher's College, was a half-time coach.

Osborne elected to pursue coaching full-time in 1967 and became the Huskers' offensive receivers coach, a decision that NU fans have applauded since.

Married to the former Nancy Tederman, Osborne is the father of a son, Mike and daughters, Ann and Susie.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

BOB DEVANEY

Athletic Director
University of Nebraska

One of the greatest coaches in the history of American football, Bob Devaney is now turning his vast energies toward supervision of the entire athletic program at the University of Nebraska. Devaney heads both the men's and women's athletic progams.

Nebraska has one of the finest athletic plants in the nation, thanks to Devaney's inspiration and leadership during the past 17 years.

Since Devaney became Athletic Director in 1967, Nebraska's Memorial Stadium has enlarged to a capacity of 76,400—largest in the Big 8—as well as an AstroTurf field, huge press box and scoreboard.

Since 1967, the Cornhuskers have a multi-purpose office building at the south end of Memorial Stadium, and they have an outdoor track facility—Ed Weir Stadium—and a new baseball park—Buck Beltzer Field—with an AstroTurf infield and grandstands.

Devaney also spear-headed a drive for the new multi-purpose complex that resulted in the Nebraska Legislature voting a cigarette tax to finance a 15,000-seat basketball arena, with adjacent swimming complex and indoor track plant. The result of his efforts was the Nebraska Sports Complex, which opened its doors in the fall of 1976. Besides the basketball arena, the NU Sports Complex, located on the Nebraska State Fairgrounds, houses a 220-yard synthetic track with seating for 4,500, a 25 meter x 25 yard swimming pool, and a practice area for the wrestling and gymnastics teams. In 1978, the Complex was renamed—by a vote of the Board of Regents—the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Few coaches ever achieved the success Devaney did as headmaster of the Nebraska Cornhuskers from 1962 to 1972. During most of that span he was the "winningest coach in the nation," based on percentage of victories. He wound up with three straight Orange Bowl wins to go with his amazing record of nine bowl trips in 11 years, eight Big 8 titles, two national championships, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Trophy winner, a Heisman Trophy winner and numerous Coach of the Year and similar honors. Twice his teams won four straight titles—1963-1966 and 1969-1972.

In his final season, Devaney's 1972 Huskers went 9-2-1 with a 40-6 win over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, and Bob led the nation's active coaches with a lifetime record of 136-30-7 for an .806 winning percentage. That year, too, Johnny Rodgers won the Heisman Trophy and Rich Glover swept the Outland and Lombardi Trophies.

Devaney was named Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Washington Touchdown Club and the Football Writers Association after Nebraska's Cornhuskers were undefeated in 13 games in 1971, sweeping to the national championship after winning the Game of the Century against Oklahoma, 35-31.

It was the second-straight national championship for Nebraska. The 1970 team was also undefeated (11-0-1), and during the span of 1969 to 1972, the Huskers went 32 games without a defeat. After Nebraska defeated LSU in the 1971 Orange Bowl game to win its first national title, former President Richard Nixon came to Lincoln to bestow a presidential plaque upon Devaney and co-captains Dan Schneiss and Jerry Murtaugh.

The Devaney Huskers reaped countless honors during those two years—AP and UPI trophies, the Grantland Rice Trophy, the MacArthur Bowl, Big 8 and Orange Bowl trophies and Coach of the Year by the Football News.

All Star games were old hat for Devaney who coached in many post-season classics such as the Hula Bowl, the Coaches All America, the All America Bowl, the Blue-Gray and the Shrine East-West. He also coached the College All Stars against the NFL Champion Dallas Cowboys in the 1972 Chicago game.

At Nebraska, Devaney's teams won 101, lost 20 and tied two in 11 years, following his 35-10-5 record at Wyoming. He never had a losing season at Nebraska and he directed three undefeated teams—in 1965, 1970 and 1971. In 11 years Devaney's teams went to nine post-season games, winning six and losing three. The Huskers played in the Gotham Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Sun Bowl and four times in the Orange Bowl with Devaney at the helm.

Under Devaney's outstanding leadership, too, the Cornhuskers produced 22 All America players and 72 All Big 8 selections in the past ten years.

Devaney played football as an end at Alma College in Michigan, graduating with a B.S. in 1939.

After starting his coaching career at Big Beaver, Mich., High, Devaney moved to Keego Harbor and Saginaw before spending seven years at Alpena High where his teams had a 52-9-0 record. He then joined Biggie Munn, and later Duffy Daugherty, at Michigan State before becoming head coach at Wyoming in 1957.

Devaney is married to his college sweetheart, the former Phyllis Wiley. His son, Mike, and daughter Patricia, are both graduates of the University of Nebraska. He's a grandfather, too, with Mike's family including a daughter and a son.

DON BRYANT, Assistant Athletic Director and Sports Information Director

Bryant serves as Assistant Athletic Director and Sports Information Director for the Cornhuskers. He served as President of the College Sports Information Directors of America in 1979. He is also serving on the Board of Directors of two other national organizations, the Football Writers Association of America and the United States Basketball Writers Association. A member of the NCAA Public Relations Committee, he became the chairman in September.

A 32-year veteran of the Nebraska media scene, the "Fat Fox"joined the Husker staff in 1963, succeeding the late John Bentley, and in 1976 Bob Devaney named him an assistant athletic director in addition to his SID duties. Bryant's responsibilities include general administration under Devaney, coordination of fund-raising, executive secretary to the Touchdown Club of Nebraska, supervision and editing of sports publications, promotion and publicity for all Husker teams, coordinating the broadcasting and televising of Nebraska athletic events, supervision and coordination of media facilities, public and institutional relations and many other administrative areas.

Bryant was a member of the 1980 U.S. Winter Olympics team, serving as a press liaison staff member at Lake Placid. He is also a veteran member of the NCAA's Press Services staff at the Final Four Basketball Tournaments. He was the chief U.S. Press Officer at the 1979 World Cup Track and Field Games in Montreal, Canada.

"Fox" is a native of Lincoln and a graduate of the University of Nebraska. He twice served in the U.S. Marine Corps and worked in the sports and news department of The Lincoln Star before becoming Sports Editor of the Star in 1954. He was named Nebraska Sportswriter of the Year in 1961 and 1962 by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

The Nebraska Broadcasters Association awarded its 1978 "Friend of Nebraska Broadcasters Award," to Bryant at its annual convention in Kearney. Previous winners were U.S. Senators Roman H. Hruska and Carl Curtis and Nebraska Governor J. J. Exon.

Named to the College Sports Information Directors of America Hall of Fame in 1975, Bryant has also served two terms as president of the Nebraska Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association. He also serves as secretary of the Nebraska Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame and is a member of the national council of the NFFHF.

Active in civic affairs, Bryant serves on the Cornhusker Council of the Boy Scouts of America executive committee and has served as a scoutmaster and as the Adult Advisor to the Golden Sun Lodge of the Order of the Arrow. He is a member of the Christ Methodist Church Choir and is active in the American Legion, the 40 et 8, Lions Club, Nation AAU and many other groups.

Bryant is married to the former Joan (Pedie) Peden of Oakland, Nebraska and they have two married sons, Bill and Jeff.

BOB DEVANEY SPORTS CENTER PERSONNEL

JIM ROSS, Assistant Athletic Director and Bob Devaney Sports Center Director

Jim Ross, Assistant Athletic Director and former standout freshman and varsity football coach for the Huskers, is in his fifth year as the Director of the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Ross, starting his 14th year as Assistant AD, served as the Cornhuskers' head Frosh coach from 1969 to 1975. During his freshman tenure, Ross' 1970, 1971, 1972, 1974 and 1975 teams were undefeated, while he finished with a career mark of 27-1. From 1962 to 1968, he was Nebraska's outstanding defensive backfield coach (NU led the nation in the 1960s).

Entering his 19th year at Nebraska, Ross came to Lincoln in 1962, leaving the University of Wyoming with Bob Devaney and his staff. Ross had served under Devaney for five years at Wyoming and before that at Alpena (Mich.) High School. Prior to teaming with Devaney, Ross was the head football coach at Newaygo (Mich.) High School and Standish (Mich.) High School.

Before entering coaching, Ross played for three years as a center and end at Eastern Michigan College, where he graduated in 1939. After college, he fought with the U.S. Army's 33rd Infantry Division during WWII and won the Bronze Star for gallantry in the Philippines.

A 1950 Masters recipient from Wayne University, Ross is married to the former Maurine Martinson and is the father of three daughters, Sharon, Margaret and Kathleen. He has six grandchildren.

PAUL SCHNEIDER, Administrative Assistant

Paul Schneider is in his fourth year as Nebraska's administrative assistant to Jim Ross, head of the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Schneider also handles football tickets for the Huskers on road games.

Before becoming the administrative aide, Schneider was the Huskers long time Head Trainer. He was the NU Head Trainer from 1952-1976, 25 years.

Schneider graduated from Nebraska in 1952, the same year he became trainer. As a student, he was an assistant trainer and also helped coach the Nebraska golf team.

Before that, he was co-owner with his brother of a golf course in Hastings from 1946-50. Then, from 1940-46, he served with the 319th Bomb Group as an Air Force Captain.

Among his honors are, host trainer for the National Trainers Conference at Lincoln in 1954, accompanying the Huskers to 14 postseason football games, receiving his 25-year service award from the National Athletic Trainers Association, and being named the KFOR Sportsman of the Year. In May of 1978, he received the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame Special Merit Award.

Schneider and his wife, Georgia, have three daughters—Connie, Pam and Cindy, and a son, Jeff, a past NU football letterman. The Schneider's have five grandsons. Office Phone: 402-472-1132 (Home: 489-4308).

ORVAL BORGIALLI, Administrative Assistant

Borgialli came to Nebraska in the fall of 1964 after coaching wrestling at Niobrara County High School in Luck, Wyoming, one of the toughest prep wrestling schools in the state.

A native of Newcastle, Wyoming, Borgialli participated in high school wrestling, football, and track. He then attended Nebraska State Teachers College in Chadron, and was an outstanding athlete—competing on the football team for four years and going undefeated in dual wrestling meets. He received his bachelor's degree at Chardron and his master's at Colorado State Teachers College in Greeley, Colorado.

Borgialli appeared in the 1970 edition of Outstanding Young Men of America. He was also meet director for wrestling competition for the 1974 and 1977 Junior Olympics, both held in Lincoln.

Coach Borgialli was chosen team leader for the AAU Cultural Exchange team that travelled to West Germany in the summer of 1977. The American wrestlers, primarily from Midwestern Universities, returned home undefeated.

Borgialli is married to the former Carol Burg of Hot Springs, South Dakota, they have three children: Susan, Merlen, and Mike.

JERRY LOTT, Operational Superintendent

Prior to March 1976, when the building was first occupied, Jerry served in the capacity of the architect's field representative at the site, working with all phases of construction from 1971-1976.

Jerry is a native of Lincoln, and a graduate of both Lincoln High School and the University of Nebraska where he received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Civil Engineering in 1958. He became a Nebraska Registered Professional Engineer in 1966. Jerry also served with the U.S. Army Signal Corps in Korea.

Jerry and his wife, the former Constance Schaaf have two children—Greg, who is a student at the University of Nebraska; and, Kristin who is in the 9th grade.

CORNHUSKER LEGEND

Prior to 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes and the Bugeaters.

But in 1900, Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star—he also helped originate the Associated Press ranking poll—tired of referring to the Nebraska teams in such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters.

Iowa had from time to time been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Cy. Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Cy started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska by-word.

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football—some winning fan approval and others arousing fan ire.

At the present time, the University of Nebraska Athletic Department uses two distinctly different cartoon characters as promotional symbols. One is a caricature of the famed Nebraska fan as drawn by Bill Goggins. It first appeared in the NEBRASKA FARMER, and that publication gave permission for the Athletic Department to use the red-attired fan as a symbol.

The newest cartoon character evolved out of Nebraska's trip to the Cotton Bowl in 1974. Artist Dirk West of Lubbock, Tex., designed a Cornhusker cartoon for the Cotton Bowl press headquarters that caught the eye of Husker SID Don Bryant. Later, Bryant contacted West for permission to use the cartoon and West expressed a desire to refine his original cartoon and improve some of the character's features. As a result, West was commissioned to draw an original Cornhusker cartoon character.

Artist West's concept of Nebraska football is appropriate—a burly, rugged and confident fellow who is proud of both the football and the agricultural tradition of the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers.

Nebraska Band '80

CORNHUSKER MARCHING BAND

Entering its second century, the Cornhusker Marching Band continues a tradition of spirited entertainment for the Big Red fans in Memorial Stadium. Under the direction of Dr. Robert Fought, the 240-member unit provides exciting pre-game and half-time shows at each home game and travels to one conference game every season.

From approximately 400 hundred students who audition in the spring, 280 are invited to a pre-season camp which begins nine days before school opens in the fall. Averaging six hours of rehearsal a day, the band drills on fundamentals while the staff makes a final determination of the personnel to be selected for the regular season. During the course of one season, the Husker Band rehearses over 120 hours to prepare over 40 musical compositions and routines for its performances at the Nebraska games.

The band staff includes Director Robert Fought, Director of Bands Jack R. Snider, Graduate Assistants Larry Lawless and Ralph Whitfield, Color Guard Director Karyn Wood, Drum Majors Matt Finkner and Bill Kellett, PA announcer Mike Veak, and band secretary Rose Johnson.

Returning for her fourth season as Feature Twirler is Debbie Kerpchar, a two-time national champion from Stratford, Connecticut.

Redwine Leads Husker Win Over Utah

Lincoln, Neb. (Sept. 13, 1980)—An awesome offensive display, led by I-Back Jarvis Redwine, enabled Nebraska to roll over Utah 55-9, in the season opener. Redwine rushed for 179 yards on only 17 carries to highlight a day that saw NU roll up 672 yards in total offense, including 545 on the ground. Late in the first quarter, Redwine took a pitch on the right side, cut up field, and left the Utah defenders in his wake as he sprinted 67 yards to boost the Huskers lead to 14-3. Redwine scored two other times before turning the rushing chores over to Craig Johnson and Roger Craig in the middle of the third quarter. In all, fifteen Huskers carried the ball enroute to the second highest rushing total in NU history. Jeff Quinn solidified his claim to the starting quarterback slot with an 8 for 13 passing day, good for 127 yards. The offensive line, which featured two sophomore starters and a junior, exceeded all expectations for a first game, opening gaping holes in the Utah line. Meanwhile, the defense had little trouble with the scrambling tactics of Utah quarterback Ricky Hardin and three turnovers (one fumble and two interceptions) helped thwart any serious threat by the Utes.

Huskers Strike Early and Often to Defeat Iowa, 57-0

Lincoln, Neb. (Sept. 20, 1980)—It was billed as a battle between the two leading rushers in the country, but it didn't take long for Jarvis Redwine and the Nebraska defense to prove who was No. 1 as the Huskers downed Iowa 57-0. Unlike the previous year when the Huskers had to come back from a 21-7 deficit to beat the Hawkeyes 24-21, the Husker offense and defense controlled the game from the start. In the battle between NU's Redwine and IU's Jeff Brown, their first carries of the day summed up the entire afternoon. Redwine sprinted 69 yards for the longest touchdown of his career (at that time) with only 1:17 gone in the first quarter, while Brown was stopped for a three yard gain. While Brown needed the entire game to pick up 51 yards (on 15 carries), Redwine left early in the third quarter after piling up 153 yards on 12 attempts. Reserve Husker I-Back Roger Craig scored a pair of touchdowns against his homestate school to add to the 78 yards he picked up on the ground. Senior quarterback Jeff Quinn continued to show improvement as he completed 8 of 10 passes for 96 yards and 3 TDs. The Blackshirts only allowed Iowa to cross into Nebraska territory twice during the entire afternoon. Iowa's ground game could muster only a net gain of 44 yards. The defensive reserves joined the scoring parade late in the game when tackle Jack Lonowski dropped IU quarterback Pete Gales for a safety.

NU Grinds Out Tough Road Victory Over Penn State

State College Pa. (Sept. 26, 1980)—Playing in front of the largest crowd to see a football game at Penn State and a national television audience, Jarvis Redwine and the Huskers continued to drive towards higher national rankings as they slugged out a tough 21-7 victory over the Nittany Lions. Although Redwine was to rush for 189 yards to increase his national rushing lead, this was a day that belonged to the defense. Led by blitzing ends Derrie Nelson and Jimmy Williams, the Blackshirts dropped Lion quarterbacks Jeff Hostetler and Todd Blackledge nine times for 89 yards in losses. The Penn State ground game was limited to only 33 net yards rushing, and the constant pressure by the NU forward wall forced seven turnovers, which thwarted any comeback for the Lions. Offensively, the Huskers were again led by Jarvis Redwine who carried the ball for a career high 34 times and scored twice. Quarterback Jeff Quinn contined to assert himself, throwing for 158 yards and avoiding an interception for the third straight game.

Florida State Upsets Nebraska, 18-14

Lincoln, Neb. (Oct. 4, 1980)—Nebraska saw its hopes for an undefeated nonconference season fall just three yards short, as Florida State withstood a dramatic last ditch Husker drive, to hang on to an 18-14 victory. In the early going it seemed as though the Huskers had found a way to penetrate the vaunted Seminole defense as they moved out to a 14-0 lead. But just before halftime FSU drove for the first of four field goals by Bill Capece to make the count 14-3. And in the third quarter, in which Nebraska suffered three turnovers that lead to FSU scores, the Huskers could only manage 46 yards against a charged up Seminole defense. But the NU Blackshirts were equally tough, forcing Florida State to settle for field goals after two of the three Husker turnovers. Even so, the Seminoles held a 15-14 advantage as the final quarter began. There were only three more points scored in the game, those coming on Capece's fourth field goal. But the Huskers had a chance to win as they drove to the FSU three yard line with just :12 remaining. But quarterback Jeff Quinn was hit as he rolled left by linebacker Paul Piurowski and he fumbled. The ball was recovered by Gary Futch to seal the victory for the Seminoles. Not only did Nebraska lose the game, but I-Back Jarvis Redwine, who rushed for 145 yards on 25 carries, suffered broken ribs late in the fourth quarter and will be lost to the Huskers for at least two weeks.

Cornhuskers Open Big 8 with 54-0 Win Over KU

Lawrence, Kan. (Oct. 11, 1980)—Nebraska, looking to get back on the winning track after their first loss of the season the week before against Florida State, scored a convincing 54-0 win over Kansas, in the 1980 Big 8 opener. The Huskers were never threatened as they scored on five of six first half possessions to jump out to a 33-0 half-time lead. With Craig Johnson scoring two touchdowns on 109 yards rushing and Roger Craig gaining 85 yards while scoring three times, the Husker running game rambled for 389 yards. The Cornhuskers completely dominated offensively as they added 131 yards through the air to make their total production, 520 yards compared to Kansas' 212. Playing without All-American Jarvis Redwine who injured his ribs in the Florida State game, Johnson continued his dominance against the Jayhawks. In 1978, Johnson ran through the Kansas defense for 192 yards and in 1979, he accumulated 138 yards rushing. There's something about Kansas that brings out the best in Craig Johnson.

OSU Falls To Huskers, 48-7

Lincoln, Neb. (Oct. 18, 1980)—Craig Johnson, starting for the injured Jarvis Redwine for the second straight week, ran for more than 100 yards for the second consecutive time and scored three touchdowns in leading the Huskers to a 48-7 win over Oklahoma State.

Nebraska took the opening kickoff and mounted an 80-yard drive with senior tight end Jeff Finn scoring on a 13-yard pass from quarterback Jeff Quinn. The stage was set by that initial drive as the Huskers rolled up 560 yards—including 430 yards on the ground as 13 players carried the ball.

Jeff Quinn had a fine day at quarterback passing for 155 yards on 10 of 14 attempts and ran for an additional 81 yards on 17 carries. The Huskers mounted a 21-0 lead at halftime, extending their non-scored upon quarters to six, before Oklahoma State tallied in the third period.

The Blackshirts held the Cowboys to a minus 13 yards rushing and a total offensive production of 143 yards. Jimmy Williams and Russell Gary lead the team defensively with 11 and seven tackles, respectively.

Craig Leads NU Past Buffs

Boulder, Colo. (Oct. 25, 1980)—With injuries to I-Back Jarvis Redwine and Craig Johnson, sophomore Roger Craig took over with 176 yards rushing and three touchdowns to lead the Huskers to a 45-7 win over Colorado. For the second game in a row, the Huskers scored the first time they had the ball as they drove 58 yards as fullback Andra Franklin scored from the three yard line. With one second remaining in the half, sophomore kicker Kevin Seibel booted a 52-yard field goal, his first of the season. Nebraska capitalized on four Colorado turnovers in the first half of play and turned two of them into touchdowns. Coupled with Redwine's 64 yards before he was hurt, Craig ran for 49 yards in the first half as Nebraska cruised to a 31-0 halftime lead.

Craig's longest run of the day came in the third period when he ran 61 yards over right tackle. Three plays later, Nebraska scored to take a commanding 38-0 lead.

Again the Blackshirts did a great job as Colorado didn't score until the fourth quarter. The Buffalos managed 240 total yards compared to the Huskers' 514.

Redwine, Franklin and Blackshirts Lead NU Past Missouri, 38-16

Lincoln, Neb. (Nov. 1, 1980)—Tabbed as the biggest game of the year to this point, with Missouri boasting a 6-1 record and ranked No. 16 by the Associated Press, the Huskers responded by scoring on their first two possessions to take a 14-0 lead before the Tigers knew what hit them. With Phil Bradley running the offense for the Tigers, nobody on the Husker bench had any cause to relax. Bradley, who later in the game broke the Big 8 career total offense record, directed a 68-yard drive that resulted in a field goal to end the first quarter, with Nebraska leading, 14-3. On their first series in the second period, Bradley again directed the Tiger offense to within field goal range and the Husker lead had dwindled to NU 14-MU 6. From that point on, it was all Nebraska. On the very next possession, following an Anthony Steels 63-yard kickoff return, the Huskers scored with the Jeff combination—Quinn to Finn—on a 17-yard pass. Then the Husker Blackshirts came through as linebacker Kim Baker intercepted a Phil Bradley pass and raced 77 yards to make the score 28-6. The Missouri Tigers weren't finished though as they scored once more before intermission—making the halftime score, 28-13. In the second half, Missouri could muster but a field goal as the Huskers put ten more points on the board to make the final, 38-16. Jarvis Redwine and Andra Franklin led the Husker running game as they ran for 129 and 122 yards, respectfully. Defensively, the three Williams, Brent, Jimmy and Toby, lead Nebraska—Brent registered ten tackles, Jimmy had nine and Toby had six tackles, including one for a four yard loss and recovered a Missouri fumble.

Soph Roger Craig leads Huskers Over Cats

Lincoln, Neb. (Nov. 8, 1980)—Nebraska fans were treated to an offensive show as the Huskers defeated Kansas State, 55-8. Sophomore Roger Craig stole the spotlight from his celebrated teammate Jarvis Redwine by blitzing the Wildcats for 183 yards on just 9 carries. In all, 18 Huskers carried the ball in a ground assault that netted 495 yards. Jeff Quinn threw for 3 scores and combined with two other quarterbacks for another 195 yards through the air to give the Huskers a total of 692 yards for their day's effort. While the offense was piling up the yardage and points, the defense was making life miserable for KSU quarterbacks. Wildcat starter Darrell Dickey had to leave the game early in the second quarter with bruised ribs. For the day, Dickey and his back-up were thrown for a total of 67 yards in losses. Leading the charge for the Blackshirts was Jimmy Williams, who blitzed in from his defensive end position to record a pair of sacks good for 31 yards in losses. Defensive tackle Henry Waechter also recorded a pair of sacks for the defense. Reserve defensive back Tim Holbrook gave the fans something to cheer about when he returned an interception 64 yards to set a new Husker record for the longest interception return not for a score. One of the few bright spots for the Wildcats came in the fourth quarter when punter Don Birdsey booted one 93 yards for the second longest punt in Big 8 history.

Blackshirts Shutout
Iowa State, 35-0

Ames, Iowa (Nov. 15, 1980)—It was only 14-0 with Nebraska leading at the half, but then the Huskers added 21 second half points to shutout Iowa State 35-0, on a cold and blustering afternoon. The Huskers only led 7-0 but with 2:28 left in the first half, Nebraska's Scott Gemar punted to the ISU five yard line, where it was caught and returned by ISU's Tom Brown. Brown was hit by several Huskers and fumbled back into the endzone, where it was recovered for a touchdown by Mike Mandelko, to give NU its 14-0 intermission lead. The Huskers tallied three more times in the second half to wrap it up—Jeff Quinn one yard run; Tim McCrady 22 yard pass from Quinn and a three yard run by Roger Craig. The Blackshirts did a good job—holding ISU to 12 first downs, 89 yards rushing and 130 total offensive yards. The NU defense limited Cyclone star running back Dwayne Crutchfield to only 69 yards on 20 carries. Nebraska, now 9-1 overall and 6-0 in the Big 8, plays Oklahoma next week for the Big 8 title and an Orange Bowl berth.

Oklahoma Beats NU—Takes Big 8 Lead and Orange Bowl Berth

Lincoln, Neb. (Nov. 22, 1980)—It was the same old story before the game and unfortunately—for Nebraska fans—it was much the same story afterwards as Oklahoma beat the Huskers 21-17 to capture sole possession of first place in the Big 8. It was the ninth time in the last 10 years that the two schools had met for the conference crown—and early on it appeared as though the Huskers were heading for their first outright title since 1971. On Nebraska's first possession, Jarvis Redwine showed some of his early season flash as he burned the Sooners for a dazzling 89 yard touchdown run. After Nebraska's second drive stalled on the OU 30 yard line, Kevin Seibel booted a 47 yard field goal to give the Huskers a 10-0 lead after one quarter. But if the first quarter belonged to the Huskers, then the second belonged to the Sooners. OU pierced the previously impregnable NU armor for two scores in the last 4 minutes of the half to take a 14-10 lead at intermission. The third quarter was a defensive show by both sides as the Huskers limited the OU wishbone to just seven yards. In the final period, the Huskers finally started to move the ball with the wind at their backs. Twice inside the OU 10 yard line, Nebraska was thwarted—once on a fourth down and two at the Sooner seven yard line and once on a fumble at the one. But the Sooners could not move the ball out of danger after the recovery and the Huskers wound up with great field position after Michael Keeling's punt went out of bounds at the OU 17 yard line. Four plays later, NU was back on top 17-14 thanks to a one yard run by Jeff Quinn with 3:16 left in the game. But just when Husker fans were dreaming of Miami beaches, OU's George Rhymes, who was starting in place of injured Sooner star David Overstreet, went to work. First, he sprinted 43 yards on a pitchout to give Oklahoma a first down at the NU 12. Then, after a key third down OU pass that put the ball at the NU one yard line, Rhymes scored with just :56 to go in the game. A last gasp pass by Jeff Quinn was intercepted to seal the Sooner victory and send the Huskers to El Paso for the Sun Bowl.

STANFORD 21, NEBRASKA 13

Nebraska was only the third Big Six team to play in a post-season bowl game, but the Cornhuskers made their first bowl trip a memorable one with an invitation to the granddaddy of them all—The Rose Bowl. Under the warm California sun in Pasadena, Coach Biff Jones' Cornhuskers led Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford Indians twice in the first half, but fell victim to the innovative T-formation 21-13. The Huskers took a 7-0 lead just six plays after the kickoff when fullback Vike Francis plunged over from the three. Stanford tied the count just four plays later when Pete Gallarneau bolted over from nine yards out. In the second quarter, the Huskers took the lead again on a 33-yard Herm Rohrig-to-Allen Zikmund pass, but the Indians came back on Frankie Albert's 41-yard TD pass to Gallarneau for a 14-13 halftime lead. A 39-yard TD punt return by Pete Kmetovic iced the game for the Indians in the third quarter.

1955 ORANGE BOWL
DUKE 34, NEBRASKA 7

If Nebraska's first bowl bid was a memorable one, it's second was one to forget. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race and went to Miami under the no-repeat rule. Making their first bowl appearance in 15 years, Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers trailed Duke's Blue Devils at the half 14-0 and pulled within 14-7 early in the third quarter after a minus-two-yard Duke punt. Halfback Don Comstock scored from the three to cap a 35-yard drive. After that, it was all Duke. Coach Bill Murray's Blue Devils rolled 65 yards to score on their next possession and added two more tallies in the fourth quarter to ice the game, 34-7.

1962 GOTHAM BOWL
NEBRASKA 36, MIAMI, FLA. 34

NEBRASKA 13, AUBURN 7

Nebraska made it's second Orange Bowl trip a happier one than the first with a 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Miami Classic. The Huskers evened their bowl record with the win and handed Bob Devaney his second bowl win in as many tries. Husker quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the game open before most of the 72,647 fans had settled in their seats. On the Huskers' second play from scrimmage, Claridge bolted 68 yards down the sideline to put NU ahead 7-0. At the time, it was the longest TD run in OB history. Moments later Dave Theisen set another OB record with a 31-yard field goal. The record lasted until the second quarter when Theisen booted a 36-yarder to give NU a 13-0 halftime lead. Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle almost brought the Tigers back, but Husker linebacker John Kirby batted a fourth-and-four pass away at the goal line with less than three minutes to go.

1965 COTTON BOWL
ARKANSAS 10, NEBRASKA 7

Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks mounted an 80-yard fourth quarter drive against a previously impregnable Nebraska defense to down the Huskers, 10-7, in NU's first Dallas appearance. The Huskers had led most of the way in one of the greatest defensive battles in bowl history. Arkansas scored first on a 31-yard Tom McKnelly field goal in the first quarter. But soph Harry Wilson capped a 69-yard Husker march in the second quarter on a one-yard plunge to give Nebraska a 7-3 halftime lead. The Huskers held that lead until Bobby Burnett finished the Arkansas drive with a three-yard TD run with 4:50 left in the game. In the fierce defensive struggle, first downs were even at 11, and the Razorbacks held a slim, 176-168 total offense edge.

ALABAMA 39, NEBRASKA 28

With the National Championship riding on the line, coach Bob Devaney's Huskers took on Alabama's Crimson Tide for the first time. Nebraska went into the game 10-0 and ranked third, Alabama was 8-1-1 and fourth. But earlier in the day, top-ranked Michigan State lost to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and LSU knocked off No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl to set up a national game in the Orange Bowl. Playing in the first night bowl game ever, 'Bama won the title, 39-28. The Tide led 24-7 at the half and the game was never in serious doubt, but led by the passing of Bob Churchich, the Huskers came back to make a solid fight and set passing and receiving records.

Ben Gregory (22) scores on a 49-yard TD toss from Bob Churchich to cut 'Bama's lead to 24-13 lead in the third quarter.

1967 SUGAR BOWL
ALABAMA 34, NEBRASKA 7

Never ones to duck a challenge, coach Bob Devaney and his Cornhuskers accepted a bid for a rematch with Alabama and Bear Bryant in the Sugar Bowl. It turned out to be a little too much of a challenge as No. 3 'Bama handed the No. 7 Huskers a 34-7 thumping. The Tide rolled up a 17-0 first quarter advantage and led at halftime, 24-0, behind the passing of Kenny Stabler. Sophomore fullback Dick Davis prevented a complete whitewashing with a 15-yard TD catch of a Bob Churchich pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. Husker QB Churchich sparkled again against the Tide, completing 21 of 34 passes for 201 yards. With the loss, the Huskers joined Alabama in holding the dubious distinction of being the only teams to lose in all four major bowls.

1969 SUN BOWL
NEBRASKA 45, GEORGIA 6

Golden-toed Paul Rogers booted a Nebraska and Sun Bowl record four field goals—in the first quarter—and coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers romped to a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 35th edition of El Paso's Sun Bowl. Rogers booted FG's of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards and sophomre I-back Jeff Kinney added a TD run of 11 yards to give Nebraska an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and the Huskers were never threatened. For his record-setting effort, Rogers was named the game's outstanding offensive player. The Big Eight co-champion Cornhuskers rolled up a 355-185 total offense advantage over the outmanned Bulldogs. Dan Schneiss led Husker rushers with 63 yards and Van Brownson completed 11 of 18 passes for 109.

NEBRASKA 17, LOUISIANA STATE 12

Playing under the lights in Miami's Orange Bowl for the first time in five years, Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska Cornhuskers won the first of two straight national titles by virtue of a 17-12 win over LSU and some fortunate circumstances. Earlier in the day, top-ranked Texas was upset by Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl, and No. 2 Ohio State was shocked by Stanford, 27-17 in the Rose. That left the doors to the title wide open for No. 3 Nebraska. The Huskers responded by building a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Paul Rogers and a three-yard TD run by Joe Orduna. But a pair of Mark Lumpkin FG's and a 31-yard Buddy Lee to Al Coffee TD pass on the last play of the third quarter gave the aroused Tigers a 12-10 lead. Nebraska showed its grit by driving 67 yards, Jerry Tagge stretching the ball over from the one with 6:10 left and the whole world knew Nebraska was No. 1.

NEBRASKA 38, ALABAMA 6

It was supposed to be another "Game of the Century" rivaling Nebraska's 35-31 win over Oklahoma a few weeks earlier. The 12-0 Huskers were No. 1, the 11-0 Alabama Crimson Tide were No. 2 and the OB had a dream game—for a little less than a quarter. The Huskers struck early on a two-yard TD run by Jeff Kinney before Johnny Rodgers broke the Tide's back with a 77-yard TD punt return on the last play of the first quarter. The Huskers added two more scores in the second stanza, and by halftime there was no doubt about who was No. 1—Nebraska led, 28-0. The Huskers continued to dominate and rolled to a 38-6 win, giving the Huskers a second straight national title and coach Bob Devaney a satisfying first win in three tries over 'Bama coach Bear Bryant.

NEBRASKA 40, NOTRE DAME 6

Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers went wild, scoring four touchdowns and passing for another, as the Cornhuskers became the first team to ever win three straight Orange Bowls, romping over Notre Dame, 40-6. In his last game as a Cornhusker, Rodgers was moved to I-back from his usual wingback position, and on the game's first play he took a pitchout for a 13-yard gain. It was a sign of things to come. "Johnny R" capped his career by scoring on runs of eight, four and five yards, caught the Irish defense by surprise with a 52-yard TD pass to Frosty Anderson in the second quarter, and scored the last of his record 50 career TDs by taking a sideline pass from Dave Humm in the third quarter and scampering 50 yards to paydirt.

NEBRASKA 19, TEXAS 3

Nebraska's Cornhuskers broke open a tight scoring contest in the third quarter with a pair of game-breaker plays to chalk up a 19-3 win over the mighty Texas Longhorns in the 1974 Cotton Bowl game at Dallas. The chilled New Year's Day crowd of 67,500 saw the Big 8 runnerup and the Southwest Conference champions battle to a 3-3 tie at halftime, thanks to a brilliant Longhorn one-yard-line stand just before the gun. But the Huskers weren't to be denied and midway through the third quarter, safety Bob Thornton returned a Texas field goal try 41 yards to set up the clinching touchdown. Ritch Bahe got the final 12 yards on a reverse and Rich Sanger kicked the point to make it 10-3. Four plays later, John Bell recovered a Texas fumble at the Longhorn 19 and three plays later Tony Davis ripped in from the three to make it 16-3. Sanger kicked a 43-yard field goal with 8:09 left to complete the scoring. Texas had scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Bill Schott in the wake of a Husker fumble, but early in the second quarter defensive end Steve Manstedt picked up a Roosevelt Leaks' fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards to the eight. But a stiff Longhorn defense forced a 24-yard field goal by Sanger.

NEBRASKA 13, FLORIDA 10

Rallying from a 10-0 halftime deficit, Nebraska scored three times in the second half to defeat the tough Florida Gators 13-10. It was the Cornhuskers sixth straight bowl victory, tying Nebraska with Georgia Tech for consecutive bowl wins.

From the very start, it was a tough, up hill climb for the Huskers. Florida scored once in the first quarter and kicked a field goal in the second, while holding Nebraska's usually strong offense to 138 total yards.

But in the second half, fullback Tony Davis, quarterback Terry Luck, kicker Mike Coyle and the Black Shirt defense took over for the Huskers and led Nebraska to victory. Although it wasn't until the fourth quarter when the Huskers really got rolling.

Freshman sensation, I-Back Monte Anthony, scored the Huskers first touchdown, with 13:24 left in the game, when he ran straight up the middle for two yards and the score. Coyle's kick was good, and the Huskers trailed 10-7.

Setting up the next two Husker scores was the fanatical running of Davis. Overall he ran for 126 yards on 17 carries, including the longest run of the game for 40 yards. For his performance, Davis was named the game's Most Valuable Player, an award which he also received in the Cotton Bowl.

Nebraska's final scores came on field goals by Coyle. Coyle tied the score on a successful 37-yard boot with only 7:13 left in the game and with only 1:46 remaining, Coyle's 39-yard kick was good, and the Huskers had won their sixth post-season game.

1975 FIESTA BOWL
ARIZONA STATE 17, NEBRASKA 14

Nebraska's six bowl game winning streak was snapped by Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, when the Sun Devils edged the Huskers 17-14, before 51,396 fans in Tempe, Ariz.

The final blow came with 4:50 remaining in the game, when ASU kicker Dan Kush successfully booted a 29-yard field goal, giving the Sun Devils a 17-14 lead.

Fighting till the very end, Nebraska then took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona State 31 yard line with less than two minutes to play. The Huskers first two plays from there were incomplete passes, but on third down, quarterback Terry Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21 yard line. However, Davis was hit hard by two Arizona State players and fumbled the ball. The Sun Devils recovered it and went on to kill the clock and claim their 17-14 win.

Despite the loss, a major milestone in Nebraska football history was established during the game, when Davis became the Huskers all time leading rusher. 'Tough Tony' finished his three year career with 2,445 yards, 25 more than Jeff Kinney gained from 1969-71. Since then, I.M. Hipp has become Nebraska's top rusher.

So Nebraska ended the 1975 season at 10-2 and ranked No. 9 in the country. The Huskers lost their last two games of the year to No. 1 ranked Oklahoma 35-10 and to the No. 2 ranked Sun Devils.

1976 ASTRO-BLUEBONNET BOWL
NEBRASKA 27, TEXAS TECH 24

In the most exciting bowl game of the year, the Nebraska Cornhuskers edged past a determined Texas Tech team, 27-24, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Twice Nebraska rallied to overcome ten-point deficits. With Texas Tech ahead 17-7 and time running out in the second quarter, quarterback Vince Ferragamo moved the Cornhuskers 80 yards in less than two minutes to score on a 22-yard touchdown pass to Mark Dufresne. But Texas Tech running back Billy Taylor countered early in the third quarter with an eight-yard touchdown run to put Nebraska down 24-14.

Once again, the Cornhuskers started to work on the Texas Tech lead. I-back Rick Berns broke around right end and dashed untouched 18 yards into the end zone to put Nebraska within three. The Huskers then took the lead when Ferragamo connected with split end Chuck Malito, who gained 107 yards in three catches, for a 23-yard touchdown pass. That score, which would prove to be the winning touchdown, was set up by a partially blocked punt by defensive backs Ted Harvey and Kent Smith.

1977 LIBERTY BOWL
NEBRASKA 21, NORTH CAROLINA 17

Nebraska scored twice in the fourth quarter on two Randy Garcia touchdown passes to rally from a 17-7 deficit and defeat the University of North Carolina 21-17 in the 19th annual Liberty Bowl.

Following a scoreless opening quarter, North Carolina opened the scoring in the second period, on a 12-yard pass from quarterback Matt Kupec to tight end Brooks Williams, with 13:52 left in the quarter. The extra point was good and NC led 7-0.

But Nebraska came right back with nine minutes left in the half and scored on a 15-yard run by fullback Dodie Donnell. Billy Todd's extra point tied it at 7-all.

However, the Tar Heels took a 14-7 lead into the lockerrooms when with 3:11 left in the half, Kupec passed 10 yards to fullback Bob Loomis for the touchdown and with the extra point, NC led 14-7.

At the 4:17 mark of the third period, North Carolina got its final score, a 47-yard field gold by Tom Biddle, making it NC 17-NU 7.

Garcia entered the game in the fourth quarter and threw two touchdown passes, leading the Huskers to the win. The first came with 10:51 left, a 10-yarder to Curtis Craig, and the second, with 3:16 left, a 34-yarder to split end Tim Smith.

For the game, Garcia completed all three of his passes for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and for his effort, he was named the Nebraska Offensive Player of the game.

OKLAHOMA 31, NEBRASKA 24

In a rematch of the Big 8 kings—Nebraska had beaten Oklahoma 17-14 just one month earlier—Oklahoma held off a furious Husker fourth quarter rally and defeated Nebraska 31-24, under the lights at the 45th annual Orange Bowl game in Miami.

At the start of the final period, Oklahoma held what seemed to be a comfortable 31-10 lead—when the Hukers caught fire. With 9:12 left, senior I-Back Rick Berns scored on a one yard plunge—Billy Todd's extra point was good—capping a 78 yard drive in 15 plays, to make it OU 31-NU 17.

The Huskers got another break with 8:07 remaining, when Sooner senior quarterback Tomas Lott fumbled the ball, and Husker sophomore tackle David Clark recovered it on the OU 42 yard line. Nebraska then drove 35 yards in eight plays and was faced with a fourth and one situation at the Sooner seven yard line. Husker sophomore I-Back Craig Johnson tried the middle for the first down, but was stopped by Oklahoma junior linebacker George Cumby. Time was beginning to run out for Nebraska.

Nebraska made its one more scoring opportunity count, starting at the Nebraska 41 yard line. The Huskers drove 58 yards in 10 plays as senior quarterback Tom Sorley passed two-yards to junior tight end Junior Miller. Todd's extra point was good—with no time remaining—making the final score OU 31-NU 24.

HOUSTON 17, NEBRASKA 14

It came down to a game of seconds as Houston, the Southwestern Conference champion, defeated Nebraska, runnerup in the Big 8, 17-14 in the 44th annual Cotton Bowl game in Dallas.

Before a CBS-TV national audience and a crowd of 72,032 in the famed bowl, the Huskers struck first, with 5:13 left in the opening quarter, when junior I-Back Jarvis Redwine scored on a nine-yard run and with Dean Sukup's extra point, NU led 7-0.

But Houston came back strong in the second period and marched 71 yards in six plays and one penalty, to score with 12:17 left in the first half, on an eight yard run by sub-quarterback Terry Elston. With the Cougars' extra point, the game was tied 7-7 at the half.

Neither team scored in the third period, but with 8:25 left, UH kicker Ken Hatfield boot a 41-yard field goal, to give the Cougars a 10-7 lead. However, Nebraska then rallied, and with 3:56 left in the contest, scored on a six-yard pass from quarterback Jeff Quinn to junior tight end Jeff Finn. And with Sukup's PAT, Nebraska held on to a 14-0 lead with only 3:39 left to play.

Houston then took the kickoff and drove 60 yards in 12 plays, down to the NU six yard line. With only seconds remaining, and with a fourth and goal situation, Elston threaded the ball between three Nebraska defenders in the endzone and Eric Herring caught it for the winning score, with only :12 left to play.

FACTS ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

A Brief History—

The University of Nebraska, now an institution of three major components—the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, the University of Nebraska at Omaha and University of Nebraska Medical Center, Omaha—and a collection of agricultural experiment stations and related offices across the state, was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 and held its first classes in 1871 in a 3-story brick building on the outskirts of Lincoln.

At its chartering, the University was committed to instruct in agriculture, the "mechanic arts," and military tactics by the terms of the Land-Grant College Act of 1862 to which the Legislature subscribed. These special endeavors, however, were made parts of the total University program with the result that Nebraska, unlike some of its neighbors, has had but one major institution of higher education.

The early years were fraught with internal ideological conflicts, with financial problems and with shortages of collegiate students. The University not only survived without interruption, it managed to establish the first program of graduate education west of the Mississippi in the mid-1880s. By 1909 it had attained membership in the select Association of American Universities, a tribute to the high quality of its faculty and scholastic programs.

The University of Nebraska–Lincoln now has eight Colleges, plus four Schools and many other programs. Thirty-nine doctoral level, 61 masters, 110 undergraduate and 15 pre-professional areas of study are offered.

Lack of financial support forced the University in 1888 to close the Medical College it had opened in Lincoln five years earlier. In 1902, the University reentered the field of medical education, taking over the Omaha Medical College. This became the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha.

Since the adoption of the Nebraska constitution in 1875, the University has been governed by an elected Board of Regents. In 1968, pursuant to legislative action and a city-wide election in Omaha, the Board of Regents was made responsible for governance of the former municipal University of Omaha, renamed the University of Nebraska at Omaha. In 1970, the number of regents was increased from six to eight. This number was increased again in 1974, when a representative of the student body from each of the three campuses became a non-voting member.

In 1971, the chief executive officer of the University was given the title of President. The executive heads of the three components, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, the University of Nebraska at Omaha, and the University of Nebraska Medical Center, were accorded the titles of Chancellor and Vice President.

Points of Interest on Campus—

Museum—The University of Nebraska State Museum has an outstanding collection of fossil mammals and is world renowned for its Elephant Hall. There are galleries of health science, Nebraska wildlife, zoology, geology and anthropology. In addition to its exhibits on three floors of Morrill Hall at 14th and U, the museum has extensive research collections in Nebraska Hall.

Art—The Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery has one of the finest collections on a university campus. Its sculpture garden is also one of the finest in the nation.

Music—School of Music students and faculty perform regularly in Kimball Recital Hall and throughout the state. There is an active schedule of concerts by University choral and instrumental groups, musical theatre productions and a wide range of musical and dance events by visiting artists.

Theatre—During the school year there are periodic performances by University companies in Howell Memorial and Studio Theatres. A repertory group performs throughout the summer months.

Nebraska Unions—The social centers on each campus provide a variety of food service facilities and relaxation areas for students and visitors, house the placement center and offices for student organizations, book stores, bowling alleys, game rooms, TV rooms, record rooms, study rooms, and rooms for large meetings and social events.

Carillon Tower—Built in 1948, the gift of alumnus Ralph S. Mueller, the tower has become a symbol of the NU Lincoln campus. It houses a 2½ octave electronic English bells carillon, played on ceremonial occasions from a keyboard.

Historical Museum—The State Historical Society has its museum and library on the campus. It features Nebraska lore dating from early Indian relics.

Center for Continuing Education—Conference and hotel facilities at 33rd and Holdrege provide a site for hundreds of adult and youth meetings each year. Continuing education programs are planned by a professional staff. The Center was financed through a grant from the Kellogg Foundation and by public subscription.

Planetarium—Public sky shows are presented daily during the summer and on weekends during the school year. Special shows are also given to University classes and visiting school groups.

Financial Aid

In 1978-79 student financial aid totalled $4.0 million from scholarships and grants ($450,000 from University funds), $5.0 million in loans (National Defense and Federally Insured loans) and $4.0 million from student employment (work-study and University part-time work). Information on aid can be obtained from the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid, 113 Administration Building.

Housing

The University of Nebraska Board of Regents adopted policy requires all unmarried freshmen who do not reach the age of 20 by October 1 of the current academic year and who do not commute from their permanent homes, to reside in on-campus housing facilities. These facilities include residence halls, cooperative houses, fraternity houses and sorority houses. Sophomores must adhere to the same requirement unless they file written parental permission to live off-campus in advance with the Office of University Housing.

Continuing Studies

The Division of Continuing Studies provides students of all ages a wide variety of non-traditional educational opportunities. It operates the largest university based independent study by correspondence program in the U.S., offering college and high school courses, and a Class A high school diploma can be earned. On-campus evening class and out-state field credit class programs are conducted. The Division conducts hundreds of non-credit conferences and institutes annually at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education in Lincoln and at out-state locations. The Division's Instructional Media Center meets the instructional media needs on campus and maintains more than 6,000 educational films, filmstrips and tape recordings which are available on a rental basis to schools, organizations and agencies.

Research

Research is conducted at the University in agriculture, education, business, engineering, law, health sciences, home economics, biological, physical and social sciences and humanities. Total support of $25.0 million includes funds from a variety of federal, state and private sources.

Athletics

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics fields men's teams in football, basketball, track, swimming, wrestling, golf, cross country, baseball, tennis and gymnastics, and women's teams in volleyball, basketball, gymnastics, swimming, softball, golf, track, cross country and tennis. Memorial Stadium seats 73,531 for football. A new facility opened in 1976-77 seats 15,000 for basketball, 3,500 in the natatorium and 5,000 for indoor track. Ed Weir Stadium seats 5,500 for outdoor track.

University of Nebraska Foundation

The University of Nebraska Foundation is a legally incorporated non-profit organization chartered under Nebraska law. Through its solicitation and investment programs, it provides between $2 and $3 million in benefits annually for the University. Among the benefits are: $1,043,757 in scholarships and fellowships; $409,303 in research equipment and support; $304,720 in support of professorships, and $100,000 in support of art, museum and library acquisitions. The Foundation has available $600,000 annually in low-interest student loans. Approximately 18,000 gifts are received by the Foundation each year. Its assets are nearly $32.0 million.

Nebraska Alumni Association

The Nebraska Alumni Association is an independent association of former students and graduates of the University of Nebraska–Lincoln campus. It publishes the bimonthly Nebraska Alumnus magazine, the Alumni Sports Reporter and maintains biographical records on all graduates and former students. In addition, the Alumni Association sponsors a world-wide network of alumni clubs, alumni tours, and class reunions. The Association consists of 168,000 alumni living throughout the world and has a paid membership of 19,000.

SOUTH STADIUM OFFICE BUILDING HOUSES HUSKER STAFF

Most of the offices of the NU Athletic Department as well as dressing and training facilities for the football team moved in August, 1973, into an office building located beneath the south Memorial Stadium expansion. The building was part of a $1.2 million bond issue which included the office building, the Husker's Tartan Track and stadium and the 9,400-seat addition to the south stadium in 1972.

Moving into the complex were the football, baseball and track coaching staffs, as well as the Athletic Director, Ticket Manager, Business Manager, Sports Information Director and Women's Athletics, along with the training and equipment staff. Basketball, swimming, wrestling, golf, gymnastics and tennis moved into the Bob Devaney Sports Center in the fall of 1976.

The basement of the office building houses the varsity football dressing room, the equipment room, training room and weight training room. The ground floor has the ticket, sports information, business, and Athletic Director's offices, plus a lounge and meeting room. The top floor has the coaches office, film rooms, one large meeting room and two smaller ones.

The dressing room which opens onto the field through a tunnel, ended a 50-year tradition of the Huskers entering the field from the north end zone. Baseball, track and freshman football dressing rooms will remain in the field house.

MEMORIAL STADIUM KEEPS EXPANDING

Already boasting the largest stadium in the Big 8 and one of the nation's most beautiful press facilities, the University of Nebraska added to the Bob Devaney-era improvement program in 1972 with 9,400 seats in the south end zone. Not readily apparent from inside the stadium is the Athletic Office Building completed in 1973 under the south stands. These two projects followed AstroTurf in 1970.

Nebraska was one of four Big 8 schools installing synthetic turf in 1970—joining Oklahoma (Tartan), Kansas (Tartan) and Kansas State (AstroTurf). Nebraska's was completed first. Colorado (AstroTurf) in 1971, Oklahoma State (Astro Turf) in 1972 and Iowa State (AstroTurf) in 1975, leaves only Missouri in the Big 8 still playing on the real thing.

Here is the list;

1964—South end zone section installed, making the Stadium a horseshoe, raising capacity to the 48,000 mark.

1965—Center portion of north end-zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.

1966—Both wings of the north end-zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.

1967—New press box, with guest section added, providing a beautiful and practical working facility as well as raising capacity to more than 67,000.

1972—South end zone extended. 9,400 seats added, raising capacity to 76,400.

1973—Athletic Office Building completed, housing, dressing and training facilities for varsity football.

1977—Installation of new Astro Turf replacing the 1970 turf, and a new scoreboard over the North stadium.

Interesting Memorial Stadium Facts

Nebraska has the largest Stadium in the Big 8 Conference and in 1979 was sixth in the country in college home attendance, averaging 76,076 a game. Here are some more interesting facts about the stadium:

—Nebraska, with the largest Stadium in the Big 8, has averaged over 75,000 fans per game for years. The Huskers have ranked in the top six nationally, in attendance for years.

—Nebraska games have been sold out 105 consecutive times, dating back to 1962.

—All 1980 games are already sold out—seven games, with an assured attendance of more than 533,000 fans.

—Every time Nebraska plays football six per cent of the State's population gathers to watch the action.
